When I Proposed.

We stood on the bridge watching the river below.
When I proposed.
The moon kissed her cheeks with its mellow glow.
When I proposed.
Her eyes blue as night looked into my own.
In silent suspense, we stood there alone.
The stars brightest rays on her bowed head shone.
When I proposed.
I know that she loved me, I forgot all the world.
When I proposed.
Like the song, for me, "there was only one girl."
When I proposed.
The moon kissed our heads on the bridge so grim.
The stars reflected in the river dim.
Her sweet answer was "yes, I love you."
When I proposed.

There have been happy nights on the bridge since, when I proposed.
But none will ever be happy to me, as, when I proposed.
The moon still has its cold mellow face.
And nightly, hold lovers no doubt in embrace.
"No," sorrow, "yes," joy in the same old place.
Where I proposed.

WEST END NOTES.

Just outside of the city limits in Henrico County there lives quite a large number of good and faithful people, and many of them are having a "hog killing time," and will go for hog and hominy during the cold winter days. Many of them have raised very fine hogs, which will prove a great help during these dull times if our people who are without trades would stick to farming, hog and cattle raising, they would become independent people much faster.

It is generally rumored that old father Time, as they call the day, has rolled back into eternity, and like a boy leaps very far into the new; he will leave his seal upon several new married couples.

Mr. L. A. Coles, the faithful Secretary of the Missionary board, contemplates a visit South in the interest of Mission work.

A bad rumor is afloat to the effect that the creditors of the Fifth Baptist Church had closed the upper part of the church and the congregation had to worship in the basement because they could not meet certain notes, and above that, that the church was one of the trustees stated last Sunday afternoon that their creditors had been very kind and considerate during these dull times and scarcity of money, that they had no intention to heat the upstairs was the only reason they were now in the basement. If these slanderers would attend to their own business (if any they have besides circulating slanderous reports) and give more money to the good cause, use less cheap talk and bad whiskey would become unworthy of note.

Rev. W. C. Graham, who preached for the 5th Bapt Church called the attention of the church to the above rumor. The deacons and trustees thanked him for so doing and assured him and the congregation that there was no truth in the report.

Rev. Graham is greatly beloved by the Fifth Church. He preached an able, eloquent, forcible, logical and soul-stirring sermon at 8:30 and was a good collection. We have heard the Reverend several times, and each time comes to be the best. He is a full grown man in the pulpit.

The Fifth Church has elected the following trustees: William H. Carter, Sr., Robert H. Freeman, R. M. Wilcox, together with Messrs. Gordon and Smith constitute a board. They have gone to work with a will straight out matters and get them in a business like manner. The signs of the times indicate for the church a better feeling and a better financial success. The church is now without a pastor and greatly needs an able man, a good financier. It is one of the best fields in the city.

The Galilee Baptist Church, (Newtown) is also without a pastor. Where are the many that said they were told of G. P. C. ? Ahem, thanks for the interpretation "Go Pull out."

The many friends of Misses Ruth, Eunice and Judith Jasper are pleased to see them at their home on T. York St., after five months' absence in Philadelphia.

Mr. Daniel Brown, one of the oldest members and faithful deacons of the Fifth Baptist Church who has been very sick at his residence on William St., for sometime is now slowly improving.

The West End fully endorse the action of the Republican State Central Committee in sustaining editor John Mitchell, Jr. in his contention for his rightful position on the State Committee from the 3rd District; also the Lumburg cases and "grab" game exposure. These are trying ordeals but let the good work go bravely on.

"Right is right, since God is God and right, the day will win."

Mrs. E. R. M. Mrs. A. W. M. that fine looking widow and Mrs. G. G. and Mrs. A. J. H. made a fine looking quartette a few nights ago. Such wives are worth having. Come faithful girls in the West End.

Rev. Rufus S. Coles is now in the city after several years' absence.

The Panorama Exhibition of Rev. Graham owing to inclement weather comes off later.

ARGUS.

FROM BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, Va., Nov. 26, 1895.
To the Editor of the Richmond Planet.
Dear Sir: Please allow me enough space in your valuable columns to say a few words for the citizens of Berkeley, in regard to the aid given by them for the Lumburg alleged murderers. At a meeting held by the citizens of this place at the Trinity A. M. E. Church, on Nov. 20, 1895, Messrs. E. F. Downey, I. L. Butt, S. Hockaday, T. A. Wood, Mrs. L. M. Johnson, Pleasant Rogers, Hon. J. E. Reid and Mrs. David Bykes. The committee recommended to the meeting to organize officers: Mrs. L. M. Johnson, President; Mrs. David Bykes, Sec. and Mrs. Mary Mundin, Treasurer. Appeals were made to the various churches and or-

CHURCH HILL NOTES.

Miss Lucy Brown of Number 2836 Q Street, we are very sorry to know is quite sick.

We rejoice at the convalescence of Miss Ellen Mann, who has been very sick for the past few weeks.

Mr. Israel Lewis is doing a fine business on P street. Your patronage is solicited.

Mr. Willie Ransom is on the sick list. He has been very sick.

Wanted, every man, woman and child on Church Hill to read the PLANET, not for this week only, but we want you to subscribe—see the terms.

Mr. Maurice R. Barrett has been quite indisposed.

We would like very much to know what has become of cupid, the child of love, who has not been seen in this section for some time.

All the members of the Venus Star club are requested to be present at their regular business meeting next Monday night. Owing to the magnitude of business to be transacted, it has been deemed advisable that all the members should be present. George E. Booker, President; Wellington T. Nelson, Secretary.

Mr. Thomas P. Norman is in quite a precarious condition at his home, number 917 N. 25th street.

We congratulate our young brother, Percy Wallace upon the satisfactory examination he so brilliantly passed at the Fourth Baptist Church, Tuesday evening, the 10th instant. It is a great honor that this young man is an aspirant to the ministry and the result has been so favorable that the ordination sermon will be preached at the above church, Wednesday night, December 18, 1895, by Rev. W. E. Graham of the Fifth Street Baptist Church. Quite a lengthy programme has been arranged and this young man will be sent forth into the world as a fully-ordained minister of the gospel.

Everybody, the old people, young people, white, black, red and every other kind of people, don't seem to realize that Christmas is but eleven days off. Nobody seems to have it in their bones, all seem to be indifferent to the young people particular, and the young men especially. No one seems to manifest any interest in the Sabbath-school, who in the Sabbath-school, who anticipate the many presents they will receive off the Christmas trees. Old Santa's presence does not seem to inspire much enthusiasm, and if so, it is on a limited scale.

Rev. Evans Payne preached another one of his glorious sermons on "Ezekiel's Wheel" last Sunday night, and quite an appreciative audience gathered to hear him unravel the mystery of the wheel.

The Sunday School is preparing its exercises for the glorious Christmas Eve. We promise to be very excellent. The children under the management of Mrs. Janie L. Smith and Misses Mary A. and Maggie Simms are progressing finely.

The Literary of the Young Men's Christian Association is in excellent condition as was attested by the splendid meeting on last Wednesday night. All the young men and young ladies are invited to take part, which is the duty of every resident on this hill; they too are preparing exercises for Christmas and the outlook is grand. We entertain great hope for these young men.

FIFTY DOLLARS FOR XMAS. Save this by purchasing your Piano from Richmond Music Company, 218 E. Broad Street.

Revival is in progress at the Twentieth Street Baptist Church, led by Rev. A. B. Smith. He is doing great work for the saving of souls in that section. May his efforts be crowned with greater success.

SEWARD-MICKINS—The marriage of Miss Martha Mickins to Mr. Anderson Seward took place Wednesday night, December 11th at 7:30 P. M. at the residence of the groom's sister, Mrs. Herbert Frazier, 589 Baltic St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

A Grand Sermon.

NORFOLK, Va., November 29. The Third Annual Session of the Grand United Order of the R. S. and D. of Moses, No. 1, was held here today at 8 o'clock.

The meeting was called to order by the Grand Worthy Prince, Mr. Edward Leggett, at 10 a. m., sang hymn, "A charge to keep I have, etc.," invocation by Mr. A. M. Kiddick, W. G. C.

The house then proceeded to business, and the session throughout indicated that the Order was in a prosperous condition. This is a benevolent society and it is doing much for the mutual welfare of its members.

At night stirring speeches were made by leading members of the Order. They spoke mostly of the origin, purpose and growth of the Order.

Also a grand supper was spread which cost about $40. This feast was given to the friends as well as to members. The delegates and the annual officers reassembled December 11th to complete the work of the year and arrange the printing and the publication of the minutes of the entire proceedings of the session.

Mr. G. M. James, being reporter for the day, was requested to mention this occasion to the Recorder, the Richmond Planet and the Virginia Baptist.

AGAINST THE GRAB.
Help for the Innocent.

Mrs. Everlina Epps of New York writes: For some months passed I have been reading great struggle in the sad cases of the three women in the Lumburg murder case, I thought then you had a great burden to bear. Now I see that Rev. W. W. Browne has made an attack upon you and the PLANET.

As a member of the True Reformers I am very much opposed to the recent grab of the said Rev. Browne. I have told day and night to keep the mountain up in which I am a member, but I shall never put another cent in again. Indeed it is a shame upon the entire race. I handed the Planet to Mrs. H. K. Heath, (white) in whose employ I am, her husband is one of the most noted and esteemed lawyers in Wall St. She read line after line and then she gave me $1.00 towards helping the poor women in the Lumburg Case. The nurse gave 30cts which I also enclose.

AFTER BROTHER BROWNE.
Against the Boycott—Opposed to the Grab—The Situation in Another Section.

COALDALE, W. Va. Nov. 18 1895.
Mr. Editor: I am a True Reformer, a member of Golden Chain Fountain No. 886, U. O. of T. R. We have been on a five month's strike here in the coal field and have not been able to pay our dues but we intended to reinstate our selves again as soon as we resumed work. Since the members here have heard from the Fifteen Annual Session, we think we had better wait a little while and consider whether we want to help pay the fifty thousand dollars and not and especially the ten thousand for which brother Browne did not ask. We heard that A. J. Oliver said that it is Mitchell's plan to grab the PLANET's line and advise the True Reformers not to take it, but we love the PLANET and a goodly number of us are going to send for it as soon as we get some shoes and clothes for our wives.

I say to all the colored people of the United States to take the PLANET and read it and there won't be so many Negroes lynched.

Yours in love,
W. A. DENSON.

IN MEMORIAM.

DANVILLE, Va. Nov. 18, 1895.
Mr. Gabe Moton, one of our old citizens departed this life October 1, 1895. He was a hard laboring man, worked at Mr. Acres' place for over 25 years, and he was dutiful to his daily occupation. Gabe one day while traveling thought of this: I have a true, loving wife, who is straightforward and an upright woman. She has been working hard for Mr. Grady and Mr. Miller for several years, who is the largest manufactory in the city. To help him along; so he thought he would pay her for her services. He connected himself with the brotherhood, the Mutual Benefit Association for $1000, with which to take care of his wife, after he is dead and gone. We highly commended his good and noble work. So we hope those who are on the outside may take a warning from this; and call on the agents at Danville, Mr. T. H. Park and prepare for those that live when you are dead and gone.

Not long ago he filled his place, And sat with us to learn; But he has run his noble race, And never can return.
